

PROSPECTUS OF THE SOUTHERN BANNER.

No portion of the South or West does the growing importance of any place more forcibly point to a suitable location of a public journal than Holly Springs. A few years ago, no man would have dreamed of the place, but now it is a forest calm; the scene now forms the prospect and happy portion of North Mississippi; here the dull monotony of nature's silence was broken, save by the savage yell, is now to be heard the busy sound of industry and civilization. The lonely path of the untutored hunter has given place to the broad mart of commerce and agricultural industry, and where stood "the deep-thatched wild-wood," is now to be seen the thronged and enlightened intelligence.

In establishing at this place a public journal, the interest of the proprietors unite with their wishes to devote its columns, first, to the advancement of the prosperity of our town and county, and to those interests which our growing importance, healthful situation and fertility of soil at once entitle us.

To render our paper deserving of patronage, no pains will be spared on our part to adapt our selections of general intelligence, to the tastes of all classes of readers. To this end our columns will be open to the free discussion of all subjects of public or general interest, which have no tendency to personal altercation, and are characterized by a proper respect for public opinion. We shall untrillingly devote our exertions to promote and advance the interest of our own State, and to induce her by a proper development and application of her mighty resources to assume among her sister States that rank which nature has so lavishly granted her the means to sustain.

In regard to our politics, although it is not designed that the BANNER shall be strictly a party paper, by which we at present understand the prostitution of the public press to indiscriminate abuse of its opponents in politics, and the vulgar and indecent denunciations of those who differ with it in opinion—yet still it will be our determination, by all proper and legitimate arguments, by respectful appeals, and by the utmost cogency of fact and honorable reasonings of which our imaginations are capable, to advance the interests of that party with which circumstances have identified us, and with which, we believe, are identified the best interests and prosperity of our country. By a firm, manly and respectful bearing, we shall endeavor to deserve the respect of our political opponents if we do not succeed in convincing them, at all events by such a course we shall be cordially received, and mayhap win a smile from partial bachelors around the domestic hearth, from whence vituperation and abuse would justly exclaim us.

Admiring as we do, the simplicity and purity of the measures, which, during the administration of Washington and Jefferson, made us happy at home and respected abroad—we shall zealously oppose those profligate expenditures of the public money which have characterized the present Administration, and together with its adopted system of rewards for its votaries, and punishments for its opponents, is calculated to shake the manly firmness of the representatives of the people, to corrupt the public morals, and prostrate at the feet of executive power and influence, the freedom and purity of the elective franchise. The rapid extension of the executive patronage, and the plans and experiments of the party in power to increase and perpetuate it, will receive at our hands a decided opposition.

To guard against the machinations of the enemies of our domestic institutions, and to expose and lash with a liberal hand, the time-serving sycophancy and degrading party spirit of their secret allies, who would willingly sacrifice us for their own aggrandizement, shall constitute no ordinary portion of our labors, and we will not regret such an employment of our time, if it will add one iota to the security and safety of our beloved SOUTH.

PROPOSALS

For publishing at Hernando, Mi. a News Paper to be called the NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN.

The "NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN" is designed to be strictly a News Paper, and will be devoted to every subject which may be deemed of use or interest to its readers. The prices of produce at New Orleans, Commerce, &c., the condition of the money market in every section of the country; politics, literature, and the fostering support and development of the resources of its own immediate section of country, will receive regular attention in its columns.

It is not intended that the "North Mississippian" shall be a partisan paper; but, under a government like ours, where the humblest individual is called to the performance of sacred and important duties, none should have lukewarm or neutral feelings in regard to the public policy of the country, nor have we, and our views upon political, as well as other subjects, will be freely expressed whenever we may deem it necessary—and it will be done in the spirit which best accords with our feelings of temperance and courtesy. We might here give our views in detail, but we deem it unnecessary, and will only state that we differ with the present administration of the General Government upon some of its most important measures, and have opposed in the last election, the elevation of Mr. Van Buren to the seat he now occupies, and, in the humble part we may hereafter feel ourselves called upon to take in practice, we shall avow our re-election.

Having devoted about four years of our life to the duties of an editor, we flatter ourselves that we are not altogether unqualified for the task that will devolve upon us. We shall use every exertion to render our paper worthy of public patronage, and trust that not a syllable will ever be found in its columns calculated to wound the feelings of the gentleman whatever his political predilections may be.

The first Number of the North Mississippian will be issued about the first of May next, with entirely new materials, upon a medium sheet, at Three Dollars in advance.
